

JUST FOR KIDS

CONNECT THE DOTS

Start with the number one, and connect the dots in numerical order to reveal the picture. Then color it in!

DID YOU KNOW?

There are two knitting design styles that are uniquely Norwegian. One is the pattern of regularly spaced single stitches called lus on a contrasting color. The other is eight-pointed rose, called selburose.

Can you find the 10 differences between these two snowy scenes?

For more Just for Kids pages from previous issues, go to sonsofnorway.com. Log in, click on "Member Benefits" on the top tool bar, then "Family Matters."

